

No telemarketer company should have the right to intrude into my life without my consent. I should have the choice to elect when and where to do business and not be harassed by strangers in my own homes. Please keep New Jersey Law as it is.